Abstract

The `abstract` environment contains a more extensive overview of the work. But it should be limited to one page. [EHP16]

Chapter 1

Introduction

The first contains a general introduction to the work. The goals are defined and the modus operandi is explained.

Chapter 2

The First Chapter

A chapter is a logical unit. It normally starts with an introduction, which you are reading now. The last topic of the chapter holds the conclusion.

2.1 The First Topic of the Chapter

First comes the introduction to this topic.

2.1.1 An item

2.2 A Second Topic

2.2.1 Another item

2.3 Conclusion

The final section of the chapter gives an overview of the important results of this chapter. This implies that the introductory chapter and the concluding chapter don't need a conclusion.

Appendices

Appendix A

The First Appendix

Appendices hold useful data which is not essential to understand the work done in the master's thesis. An example is a (program) source. An appendix can also have sections as well as figures and references.
